

A possible connection between the leader of a Cuban liberation group, also popped up.
New Orleans police said they stopped two young men in a car on Aug. 30, 1967, and found in the auto a pistol and an identification kit with a wig.

Starts from 2/27/67

WHEN POLICE voiced suspicion, the youths took them to the home of Sergio Arcachua, so he could vouch for them.
Arcachua's wife told police Fertie had been at the home a short time earlier, and the pistol and kit belonged to him.
The youths were released.

Agents from Garrison's office sought to question Arcachua over the weekend in Dallas. Arcachua insisted that Dallas detectives sit in on the interrogation and the questioning was delayed.