New Orleans Pilot's Death Ruled Due To Natural Causes

ORLEANS (AP) -Coroner Nicholas Chetta said today a chemical analysis of the body of David W. Ferrie showed he had died of natural causes.

"There is no indication whatsoever of suicide or murder," the Orleans Parish coroner said. A ruptured artery in the brain was the cause of death, he said.

One of the mysteries in the case has been an unsigned, undated note found in Ferrie's apartment. It said death would his death as a central figure in be "sweet prospects" and could his investigation. He said he had Ferrie, a pilot, was found week, dead in bed Wednesday. He was Dr. a central figure in Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's current investigation into the assassination of President Johnh F. Kennedy. Garrison had termed Ferrie's death apparent suicide.
