Ray stuff got very big play here on all 3 local network outlets and papers.

Lipson called tofay saying Jim had called him wanting to talk. I told him Jim was okay.

As far as I can determine we didn't keep a copy of the Strader contract. Lipson thinks we sent it back to his attorney in Indianapolis, Ind. doesn't remember name. I haven't found Linstead yet. Said he wanted a lot of money.

LARRY S. FINLEY

Finley Dear Larry,

6/15/74 Many thanks for the note of 6/11 and the enclosures, which I'll read tomorrow when Bud and Jim will be here to read about a hundred pages and I'll have time to copy whatever they may want, the Trib story for sure, if only for the head!

Jim has seen Lipson, who grieved about all the good stories he missed when he got to understand the scaning of his own notes.

Of all your many kindnesses, perhaps the nest important one will be the unconscionable delay in providing those notes after I asked for them. Lore than three years? well, it is important that we neither had them nor had any way of knowing their contents before I conducted the interviews for the afflidavits for the haboss corpus petition and before Jim drafted the affidavits based on those interviews! They put a 1968 date on the content that is important, but I disn't get it until I think 1971, May. And Lipson remembers, too! It worked out great this time, the rare exception, so our sincerest thanks for your grossest negligence! Only Philade don't expect lightening to strike twice.

This thanks will serve for Jim, who is getting ready to leave for Memphis and some kind of pro-pre proceeding before the junge and for the filing of motions.

When Foreman even now says he expected 3400,000, the Trib head, he confirms our charges and the opinion of the mixth circuit. In and Dud will love that! Beat.
