

Feb. 7, 1972

Dear Harold,

Our friend in Big D is sending me the CDs pertaining to our new friend. She was quite helpful. I'll do a little work for her here in exchange.

She says he is not the son of the general but the guy's nephew. I don't know if I can make a story out of it still. But the city editor is interested.

Here's the clips xerox. I'll send you copies of the CD pages if she doesn't. She says she's found at least 29 pages.

I can't quite explain why, but someone other than myself is now preparing a King piece of some length. He has called for me but I've been out. He's in the DC bureau. I'll refer him to you if it's that kind of King piece.

Later, at another typewriter.

Bob Gruenberg of our Washington bureau is working on a King Assassination piece. They have given him more time for it than I had expected in the past. I told him to call you. He has already been in touch with Bud and Jim.

Remember he is a very sharp reporter. So only tell him what you want to see in print. He is also honorable if you think he needs backgrounding on anything confidential. I really don't quite know where his head is as far as politics. I think he can do a fair job. Right now he is interested in the story, but is worried about not having enough time for ~~XX~~ a good job. Help him if you can.

F.

