SUSAN LEE FLIKEID, nee HARRIS, was interviewed at the Faber Hotel, Room 360, and she advised that they are presently moving from their former address of 1831 North Grammercy Place, Los Angeles, California, and have not settled in a permanent location; however, will settle possibly in the Los Angeles area. FLIKEID stated that she and her husband are presently on a vacation touring the Midwest.

FLIKEID stated that ANITA KATZWINKEL and GINGER CUNNINGHAM NANCE are known to her and that she last saw ANITA KATZWINKEL approximately three months ago when she was employed at a restaurant possibly known as "Mary Ann," exact location unknown, Sunset and Western, Los Angeles, California.

According to FLIKEID, GINGER CUNNINGHAM NANCE and ANITA KATZWINKEL arrived in California possibly around May 5th through the 10th, 1967, and stayed at the same hotel she was residing at at this time which was the Palm Apartments, 5435 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, California. FLIKEID advised that from information she received from KATZWINKEL and NANCE, they had driven from Illinois to an unknown location in Oklahoma when the car they were using broke down. They then hitched a ride with two individuals who drove them then to San Diego, California, where the girls were met by GINGER NANCE's father, BRIAR CUNNINGHAM (phonetic), exact address unknown either Bellflower or Bell Gardens, California. Mr. CUNNINGHAM then transported the girls to Los Angeles.

GINGER NANCE dated two unknown males while in California and that she does not recall the identity of these individuals at this time and cannot recall the types of automobiles these individuals operated.

FLIKEID further advised that to the best of her recollection at this time, ANITA KATZWINKEL also dated two different unknown individuals while in California; however,
