

Book World 6/15/78

“Throws more light on the CIA’s activities
than any book
hitherto published from an authoritative source. It’s the best to date.”

—John Barkham
Reviews

In its front page review,
The New York Times Book Review calls it— “Important...a serious treatment of a serious subject.”

“The intelligence community is divided and confused and there is probably no better place to go for a glimpse of the awful mess than the memoirs of William Colby, Director of the CIA from 1973 to 1976.”—Thomas Powers
