

What is the proof or Ray's guilt?

Ballistics?

Eyewitness?

Presence at scene of crime?

Even presence in the city.

Witnesses

Dust jacket says

"In that time he has interviewed in depth virtually every person here and ~~abroad~~ who had anything to do with the case." (If no conspiracy, who abroad had to do with the case?)

Did he interview

Bertie Reeves

Bonebrake

Bessie Brewer

Frazier

Charles Stephens

Eracie Stephens

Lloyd Jowers

cab driver (indexed testimony of)

~~music~~ record-store man.

Julius Graham

Barnell Finley

261 "Take the state's witnesses - three hundred or more." How many in Memphis, where the non-conspiracy, you say, crime was committed? How many from there? You heard prosecutor Dwyer say at most 10. What purpose do the other 290 serve except to make a proper defense impossible, what can they contribute to a jury considering a Memphis murder?