Pointer

November 7, 1972

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

Last year, as a result of the Symposium on Assassinations which was held here, numerous students became interested in the King assassination. In light of this fact, The Pointer would like to print more information concerning this assassination for our student readers. We would like to begin by printing a review of Gerold Frank's book, An American Death: The True Story of the Assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Since you are the foremost authority on this subject, would you be willing to write a review of this book for our newspaper?

The review can be as short or as long as you deem necessary, and it can include any information about the Ray case in general which you feel is important for our readers to know. Although there is an interest in this subject, I believe that it would be best to assume that most students reading the article will know little or nothing about the circumstances surrounding King's assassination.

I have taken the liberty of enclosing a check for you in the amount of $25 in the hopes that you would be willing to take the time to do us this favor. We do understand that you have a very busy schedule and perhaps do not have the time to do any review.

Sincerely,

Elaine J. Malek
