Dear John,

Here are copies of some things, including the letters to Bair and Pevsner.

I am still struggling to catch up. Lil is having to work longer than we had expected. While it is helpful financially, it unloads on me those things she did daily.

If you have the Sunday Times piece, would you please give it to Pevsner. Sorry I didn't think to send you a copy of my letter to the editor. Without exception, as I say in this letter, everything thing Epstein says about me and my work is false, libellous or both, and of libelous intent.

I would like to sue that bastard, get him on the stand and examine him, especially on the bit about my appearances which he could not have had of his own knowledge (and he never once quotes anything I said because none of it is subject to the interpretation he gave), ask him where he got the transcripts, etc.

Nothing new. I did put the money on my debts, and feel no better for it, such is the amount that remains.

Best regards and thanks.
