

Personalities

Fritchey, Wisner To Wed

Syndicated columnist Clayton Fritchey and prominent Georgetown hostess Mary "Polly" Wisner expect to be married today in a quiet ceremony in London.

Fritchey, a onetime White House aide during the Truman administration, Assistant Secretary of Defense under George C. Marshall, former deputy chairman of the Democratic National Committee and presidential campaign aide to the late Adlai Stevenson, now writes a column syndicated by the Los Angeles Times.

Mrs. Wisner, whose late husband, Frank Wisner, was for many years one of the leading figures in Central Intelligence Agency, has three sons and a daughter. Frank Wisner III, a State Department official here, said yesterday his mother went to London to avoid publicity over the marriage.