WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

SEP 6 1967

Dear Friend:

Thank you for your recent communication commenting on my speech before the American Bar Association which was reprinted in the New York Times of August 20, 1967. I appreciate your interest in my views.

I regret having to resort to a form letter but the mail on this subject has been so voluminous that I simply do not have time for an individual response. However, your remarks are greatly appreciated.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

J. W. Fulbright
Chairman
