

Dear Mr. Griffith,

9/6/96

Ordinarily we do not do what you ask but because you are in the service we make an exception. Please just add the postage to $10.00.

I do not now recall whether I thought of sending Post Mortem to Carrico or not after all these years. I do know that when it was possible for me to return to Dallas he was no longer there.

However, as you will see in Post Mortem, what he told me is what he had already testified to. The ~~add~~ difference is the demonstration he gave me of how the tie is cut off. He told me he unbuttoned two buttons to get the stethoscope in. While ^{as} I recall they were doing that cutting. He also said that what they did was the usual, the normal procedure. You will find that is exactly what the nurses testified, Henschliffe, Bowron or both.

Varrico was aware that I was interviewing him to use in my writing.

Your question about ^{the} location of the throat wound you will find is in his testimony, where it was entirely ignored. Nothing new in it.

I'm sure I quote his testimony on this. Dulles asked him twice.

Not Specter!

Perry also knew I'd be writing what he told me.

I interviewed them both the same morning.

Please excuse the haste. We are having the storm you will have heard about.

Best wishes,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

There was one other question that I meant to ask you: Did you send Dr. Carrico a copy of your book Post Mortem? Or, did you send him a copy of your summary of your interview with him?

What I'm trying to find out is if Dr. Carrico was aware of the summary of your interview with him? I'm trying to determine if he knew what you had reported about his comments regarding the throat wound's location (i.e., the comments he made to you on this subject during your interview with him). Was he aware that you had quoted him as unequivocally confirming that the throat wound was above the collar?

Finally, could I purchase a copy of Post Mortem? I have four of your other books, but not Post Mortem, and I hear it is an excellent book. If you'd be kind enough to send me a copy, I would immediately send you payment for the price of the book, plus postage, of course. I don't know what you're charging for the book, but I'd love to purchase a copy of it.

I thank you for your time, and look forward to hearing from you.
And please allow me to say that I,
for one, deeply appreciate all the hard work you've devoted to the case.

Sincerely,
Mike Duffolk

Dear Mr. Goessl,

Your letter of 10/20, mailed in New York November 4, reached me yesterday.

My work has been restricted to the assassination and its investigation. I've not looked into, have no information on or sources on the family/.

You say you are interested in the assassination but your letter is on the family.

We can provide each of the books I published.

My most recent two were published by Carroll & Graf. They are Case Open and NEVER AGAIN!

Your book store should be able to get them through its normal channels.

Sorry I cannot be of more help with your interest in the family. I have read enough of John Davis, supposedly on the assassination, to caution you that he cannot be depended on. I would not quote him on anything.

I also cannot provide the two books Carroll & Graf published.

If you'd like those I published I'll send you the information you'll need.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg!

First I would like to introduce myself. My name is Paul Christian Goessl and I'm 26 years old. I live in Kaiserslautern, West Germany and since 1991 I am interested in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy as well as in the life of Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy Onassis.

It is hard to find any kind of literature about the Kennedy family here in Germany. The only possibility I had was to buy books at the American Armed Forces Bookstores in Germany. But their variety was very small.

But fortunately I received your address from a bookstore. Here are some questions:

- Do you have any further informations, tapes, books, documents, interviews or even photographs about the late President and his radiant widow which I could obtain?
- Can you tell me any other institution or address where I can get more material about the assassination of JFK and about Jackie?

I would be very very thankful if you could answer the questions cause you are almost the last source I hope to get informations from about my sub-ject. Maybe it would be possible for you to send me a list or catalogue with all the available material concerning the presidential couple.

For your help and understanding I thank you in advance.

Yours sincerely
