

3/31/71

Dear Mr. Greenbaum,

Hasty thanks for your letter of 3/29/ To date, aside from an enormous debt, such expressions of understanding and appreciation are my sole return from this long, exhausting and, as you can see, continuing work.

The two parts of POST MPRTEM (there will be a third, already largely researched), are available in limited, xeroxed editions only. They are thus costly and I must apply structures, I am making copies available to collectors and scholars who commit themselves in writing, not to use and not to permit to be used.

These works represent an enormous and costly labor. More, I want the material I have dug up, ferret out and made sense of used as I think proper and accurate, not as some sensationalist may decide.

F AME-UP itself was first such an edition, twice this length. Almost all the first part had to be edited out. It is, as published, too large for the average person and too costly for many budgets.

The two parts of POST MORETEM are each $21.00. ~~XXXX~~ I am now having a few copies made, for even this I cannot afford. The price includes insured postage.

If you are really studying the case and if you do commit yourself as above, and if the cost is not prohibitive for you, let me know.

Again, thanks for the nice words.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I have recently purchased your new book, Frame-Up. It should certainly contribute much to American justice, as did your Whitewash series.

In studying the Kennedy assassination case, purely as an amateur, I am convinced that the first four books in the Whitewash series have had the greatest effect on honest assassination investigations, both public and private.

I note two books listed in Frame-Up which I have not been able to locate anywhere in the New York area. These books are: Post-Mortem: Suppressed Kennedy Autopsy and Post-Mortem III: Secrets of the Kennedy Autopsy. My personal investigation into both President Kennedy's death and the ensuing "investigation" by the government will be greatly hindered if I cannot locate your two aforementioned books.

Could you please help supply me with these two books by telling me their price and how I may order them from you. I am most anxious to read them!

Thank you for your efforts on behalf of the thinking people of America.

Sincerely,

Edward B. Greenbaum
