Mr. Andrew Sciambra
Office of the District Attorney
~~2700~~ 2700 Tulane Avenue
New Orleans, La. 70119

Dear Mr. Sciambra,

Harold Weisberg has pointed out that pages 1044 ff. ~~of~~ of CD 1107 concern allegations by or about one James W. Gallaher. I have checked the indexes to available FBI CD's which I have, and there is no other reference to any Gallaher or Gallagher. Of course, I have not checked the Commission's name files.

According to the ~~Times~~ Times-Picayune of August 19, 1967, your office claims that Clay Shaw met with Jack Ruby and Lee Harvey Oswald in Baton Rouge "approximately ~~between~~ between the hours of 2 p.m. and 9 p.m. ... on or about September 3, 1963." As I mentioned in my letter to Tom Bethell on September 27, 1967, there is evidence indicating that Oswald was in New Orleans at some point on September 3. An unemployment claim bearing this date is Hunley Exhibit 2 (20H204-5).

At Harold's request, I am sending this to you, special delivery.

Sincerely yours,

Paul L. Hoch
