

count of his exhilarating but mishap-laden trip around the world in a 50-foot yacht as an entrant in the 1990-91 BOC Challenge. Illustrated.

• In Go Seek the Pow Wow on the Mountain: And Other Indian Stories of the Sacandaga Valley (Greenfield/Bowman, $12.95 ISBN 0-912678-87-9), Don Bowman relates tales of lives of the Iroquois and Abenaki peoples of New York's Sacandaga Valley. The tales were told to him when he helped clear the valley after a dam resulted in flooding. Illustrated.

• Conservationist Paul Schaefer recalls the joys of his life in the Adirondack Mountains in Adirondack Cabin Country (edited by Noel Riedinger-Johnson, Syracuse Univ., $17.95 ISBN 0-8156-0275-8). Photographs.

FICTION REPRINTS

Gone With the Wind Berkley, $5.50 ISBN 0-425-13944-1 Three wholesome American kids stalk a serial killer who has abducted their mother in this outstanding psychological thriller. (Jan.)
The World My Wilderness Rose Macaulay. Virago (Trafalgar Sq., dist.), $10.95 ISBN 0-86068-340-0 This novel about a 17-year-old girl's move from a fishing village in France to London in the aftermath of WW II was first published in 1950. (Jan.)

Dunster John Mortimer. Penguin, $10.95 ISBN 0-14-023270-2 Mortimer has written an impressive and sharply drawn study of friendship and conflicted loyalties among three men in contemporary England. (Jan.)

The Midwife's Advice Gay Courter. Signet, $5.99 ISBN 0-451-17692-8

Hannah Sokolow returns as head midwife at Bellevue Hospital in 1913 in this compelling sequel to Courter's bestselling The Midwife. (Jan.)

Winter Fire William R. Trotter. Signet, $4.99 ISBN 0-451-17718-5 Assigned to the Finnish front, a conductor turned Nazi spy befriends the composer Sibelius in Trotter's evocative but contrived debut. (Jan.)

Red Bride Christopher Fowler. Roc, $4.99 ISBN 0-451-45293-3 This lackluster thriller, set in contemporary London, portrays a public relations executive and family man seduced by a cruel and mysterious actress. (Jan.)

The Island: Three Tales Gustaw Herling, translated by Ronald Strom. Penguin, $9.95 ISBN 0-14-023279-6 Three short works set in Italy by one of Poland's best-known writers probe the contradictions, rituals and baroque mysteries of the Catholic religion. (Jan.)

The Plagiarist Benjamin Cheever. Collier, $10 ISBN 0-02-018925-7 Cheever's buoyant and touching debut is about an aspiring magazine editor with marital troubles who is the son of a much celebrated American writer. (Jan.)

Homme Fatale Paul Mayersberg. St. Martin's, $4.99 ISBN 0-312-95177-9 British screenwriter Mayersberg's moderately suspenseful first novel depicts a film agent's obsession with an enigmatic and murderous woman. (Jan.)

Cafe Berlin Harold Nebenzal. Avon, $10 ISBN 0-380-72169-4 In this darkly kaleidoscopic first novel, international espionage unfolds amidst Berlin's decadent nightlife of the 1930s and the horror of WW II. (Jan.)

The Kitchen God's Wife Amy Tan. Vintage, $12 ISBN 0-679-74808-3 Tan's immensely perceptive and poignant second novel tells of an aging Chinese woman's relationship with her American daughter. (Dec.)

Walking Dead Man Mary Kittredge. St. Martin's, $3.99 ISBN 0-312-95157-4 This convoluted and disappointing fourth entry in the Edwina Crusoe series uses forensic dentistry to investigate jewel smuggling and prostitution. (Dec.)

Pennterra Judith Moffett. Del Rey, $5.50 ISBN 0-345-37824-5 In this futuristic novel by the author of The Ragged World, the planet Pennterra wages ecological war against colonists from a ruined Earth. (Dec.)

Robert Louis Stevenson: The Complete Shorter Fiction Edited by Peter Stoneley. Carroll & Graf, $14.95 ISBN 0-7867-0022-X Stevenson's short stories and novellas are collected, including his classic study of late-Victorian dualism, The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. (Dec.)

Ghostwright Michael Cadnum. Carroll & Graf, $4.95 ISBN 0-7867-0048-3 A good old-fashioned thriller about a successful artist troubled by a character from his past. (Dec.)

The Specialists Lawrence Block. Carroll & Graf, $3.95 ISBN 0-7867-0046-7 Five ex-soldiers are hired to find and eliminate criminals in the Edgar Award-winning author's gripping novel. (Dec.)

All Flesh is Grass Clifford D. Simak. Carroll & Graf, $4.95 ISBN 0-7867-0045-9 Extraterrestrials attempt to impose social harmony on a small rural town in this novel by Hugo Award-winning author Simak. (Dec.)

NONFICTION REPRINTS

Excess Baggage: Getting Out of Your Own Way Judith Sills. Penguin, $10.95 ISBN 0-14-015720-4 Sills offers an entertaining but simplistic typology of psychological weaknesses, which she calls "excess baggage," in this nine-week PW bestseller. Author tour.

(Jan.)

The Naked Consumer: How Our Private Lives Become Public Commodities Erik Larson. Penguin, 10.95 ISBN 0-14-023303-2 Former Wall Street Journal reporter Larson investigates consumer espionage and invasive marketing practices in this alarming and compelling exposé. (Jan.)

The Great Boom Ahead: Your Comprehensive Guide to Personal and Business Profit in the New Era of Prosperity Harry S. Dent Jr. Hyperion, $10.95 ISBN 1-56282-758-8 Business consultant Dent contends that economic trends are highly predictable and forecasts an unprecedented boom in the late '90s. (Jan.)

Sherman: A Soldier's Passion for Order John F. Marszalek. Vintage, $15 ISBN 0-679-74989-6 This provocative and ably written biography views Sherman's military career in light of his passion for social order and intellectual certainty. (Jan.)

The Jaws of Death: Shark as Predator Man as Prey Xavier Maniguet, translated by David A. Christie. Sheridan House, $19.95 ISBN 0-924486-64-3 Maniguet, a diver and shark specialist, discusses man-eating sharks, chronicles numerous shark attacks and offers advice on how to avoid them. Photos. (Jan.)

Whitewash: Selections from Volumes I to IV Harold Weisberg. Carroll & Graf, $15.95 ISBN 0-7867-0016-5 The author of seven books on the JFK assassination critiques the Warren Report and speculates about the failings of American democracy. (Jan.)

Cooking with Regis & Kathie Lee Regis Philbin and Kathie Lee Gifford, with Barbara Albright. Hyperion, $9.95 ISBN 1-56282-752-9 Talk-show hosts Philbin and Gifford deliver quick, easy-to-follow recipes in a lighthearted, conversational tone in this two-week PW bestseller. (Dec.)

Commager on Tocqueville Henry Steele Commager. Univ. of Missouri, $12.95 ISBN 0-8262-0941-6 A formidable pair are united as Commager applies Tocqueville to today's world. (Dec.)

The Sense of Sight and The Success and Failure of Picasso John Berger. Vintage, $12 each ISBN 0-679-73722-7; -73725-1 British art critic and novelist Berger offers a sharp collection of essays on art and artists and a critical study of Picasso's career. (Dec.)

Life on the Life on the King Ranch Frank Goodwyn, foreword by Bruce S. Cheeseman, photographs by Toni Frissell, drawings by Bruce Marchin. Texas A & M, $12.95 ISBN 0-89096-569-2; cloth $24.50 -564-1 Goodwyn's 1951 firsthand account of life on a cattle ranch in Texas depicts the folk culture of the Southwest. (Dec.)

in mail
from
CFA
11/26/93