

Dear Dick,

4/23/93

With the Livingstone High Trash 3 <sup>4</sup> due to have been turned in a week ago, when this came in today's mail I decided to make a copy for you because how much confidence can there be in what he says and writes may become an issue.

I've eliminated the name of the addressee on the ~~chance~~ chance it may be used so that abuse of him not be enticed. I've highlighted to save you time.

After two books in which the firearms evidence is essential he knows <sup>so</sup> little about it he has to ask for help. Yet the firearms evidence is vital to his books.

He refers to "the missing back of the head," meaning JFK's. It was never missing, as he'd have known if he had checked the Zapruder film at the outset instead, as he told me, after High Trash 2. <sup>6</sup> It is his seeing this for the first time in 1992 that led him to decide that the film was toyed with and altered.

The subject-matter ignorance reflected on page 12 is remarkable given his argument that he cannot understand my stuff. This says that is because he did not read it.

That report was never "released." It was disclosed in a 1969 lawsuit, not in 1979 as he says, and that and the mislocating of that head wound are in Post Mortem, published in 11/75.

True also of the fragment <sup>my</sup> on the bone table in the head.

If he knows so little of what was published and he has and says he has read <sup>7</sup> and says he can't understand.....

On the last page he says, "I make a lot of mistakes...."

After thinking about it further I enclose also his 3/6/93 to Gary Shaw. Not to take your time with now but on the chance you may later need it.

Best
Harold

It is irrational and in effect it charges Mary Ferrell's husband Bukk with involvement with his alleged ~~assassins~~ assassins who Livingstone says escaped through "tunnels" to that dealership. I think he meant storm ~~and~~ drains. Pages 3, 6. No, he has both non-existing tunnels and the storm drains. The Jean Valjean theory of the assassination that Lifton invented, along with tunnels! <sup>8</sup> In his 2/9/93 to Mary Ferrell that I sent you he charges her with a "criminal <sup>criminal</sup> conspiracy against me, and possibly to wover up the facts in ~~the~~ John Kennedy's murder." Can be taken to refer to her husband and the dealership escape route.
