

I was quite wrong in what I said about the King reprint cover's darkness. I did not realize until on a return trip to the mall all the lights were not on when I first saw the ~~Wix~~ Walden display of the book. With full illumination the cover was quite clear and I think attractive.

The Jerusalem Post international edition identifies itself at the bottom of the page. It selects for reprinting ^{from} what appeared in its daily editions. I enclose copies of the three in the current edition.

Because I do not have the permission of the person who sent me a copy of a Livingstone letter to him in which Harry says the JFK assassination ^{was} was condoned by the Republican Party and it was perpetrated by radical right Republicans" I do not enclose the first page.

The kindest thing he says about me on it is, "Not only studies, but my own experience with those who have had triple by-pass operations effects their reason."
