

Dear Dick,

3/9/93

The utter insanity of the Livingstone mess keeps intruding and I keep thinking about it. Last night I learned that he actually blackmailed one of the Baltimore cops working for him. I can probably get a copy of the letter of which he actually gave a copy to the Here is where you phoned. I should have told you about Mark Crouch that he is the one to whom the Secret Service agent who printed the black-and-white autopsy pictures gave them. First thing Crouch checked the legality, with a fine Maryland lawyer, and he is OK on that. He has prepared a long memo on that whole business of which he is to send me a copy. I think he'll give it to you if you want it. Herman Graf may have met him because he told me last week that Harry pressured him to where he had to be at that crazy press conference in New York at the time of JAMA's and then used him only to try to keep Groden out. He went ape with Crouch when Groden used a different door and got in. That is what caused Crouch to decide to have nothing more to do with Harry.

The name of the Baltimore police internal-investigations detective who phoned me is Joe Adams. There is a sergeant on it above him. As I understand it to other cop is named Marco Miranda. From the reports I've gotten ^{del} he is not very bright. The first cop is Richard Waybright. Not even a poor liar, ^{Marco} his lies have been that transparent.

If you (plural) have any need to speak to the woman friend of Mary Ferrell's, who triggered the Baltimore police added investigation of behalf of Mary Ferrell, I'll ask her. She is bright and a fine person whose children are grown.

As I told you, Harry's attacks on Mary gave her panic attacks. She was also very depressed, that added to all her many other troubles. But when she heard of the Baltimore police investigation, ~~she~~ returned to normal and I not only do not doubt she'd ^{sue} ~~sue~~ she worked for years for one of the most prestigious and influential Dallas firms where she was so well thought of when, as I recall, one of the top partners became governor he took her with him as his secretary. She is now neither timid nor afraid.

From what Harry told me his new book is or involves a plagiarism of a fake book by the French CIA ^{the} to movie of which I personally killed in New Orleans. ^{to Harry have} ~~he has~~ H.L. Hunt as one of the JFK assassination conspirators and ^{Harry} actually was investigating me as helping Hunt in it! Based on a misrepresentation to him in all probability and his own wild belief of what my involvement was. Anything but what he imagines or made up. Details if wanted. In short, ~~from~~ from what he has told me, said publicly and written, the whole project is insane beyond belief.

If by any chance C & G think I want to hurt Harry and his book, I've refused all public ^{comment} ~~comment~~ on both, the first to the Baltimore Sun when it first appeared and would have hurt. I told him the basis of his second was impossible, he finally admitted that he was wrong, and I've never said a word about that. ...Expected information not in today's mail. Best to you all,

Harry
