Dear Peffer,

Thanks for your letter of the 14th.

I did not intend to intrude into your busy days and there was no rush, I thought you might be interested in that part of the reflection of Mailer, or should I say what has happened to him. I'd asked my wife to retype them only. All of it is being retyped on a computer.

If I did not tell you, Pepper sent me a copy when the book first came out, from England.

I got and I appreciate those Zapruder pages from Killing Kennedy, thanks.

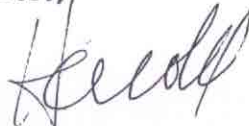

After all this time and all that writing the man does not yet know what motion-picture film is! Among other things.

He refers to the original as the negative when it is all positive and he refers to three negatives, as I recall.

All that is projected, including slides, are positives.

I hope you all have a good holiday season.

Best,

Dear Harold:

Your chapters XII and XIII of the Mailer book arrived today. As I doubt that I shall get to them immediately, I have photocopied the pages so as to be able to return your originals to you now rather than weeks from now.

Also, I hope that by now you have gotten the pages we copied for you from Killing Kennedy; they were sent the same day as the Pepper book. (If you have not, they can be copied again and sent.) I would have sent you the book itself, but Carroll & Graf is apparently totally out of spare copies at this time.

I look forward to the holidays and hope that yours pass happily.

Best wishes,
