Dear Richard,

When we got the statement and check from Kent Carroll Lil saw a $385 item for which she had no explanation. We got it in today's mail. In going over her file she finds no record of our having gotten the second half of the Selections advance. She did find a note from David saying it was only half and she made a copy of that and of your check for that half. A copy enclosed.

If David made those selections he did an excellent job of it.

The item we could not identify is for the extra copies of Case Open I got. I have no objection to that but in fact virtually all were used not personally but for those I had to get in touch with and ask help of at your request to do what Charlie Winton wanted done and you did not use, plus some in efforts to get the book some attention. A few did result in minor reviews and mentions in newsletters.

I'm still hearing about it. Today a letter from Bar Harbor, ME saying that woman was lucky to get the last local Barnes & Noble copy.

But not a word from Posner or anyone at R & H.

Best,

Hardy

Dear Harold,

Here's the first half of the advance. I'll speak to you soon.

Thanks for the books.

Congratulations on the Redheads.

Best,

Devon
