Harold Weisberg's Never Again

Dear Mr. Gallen:

As I am sure you are aware from prior correspondence from Mr. Weisberg, he has graciously agreed to allow me and my clients, Charles Crenshaw, M.D., and Gary Shaw, to review the manuscript of Never Again for possible helpful use in the above-referenced case. If you will send me a copy of the manuscript, I will see that you are reimbursed for copying expenses. If there will be some problem with this request, please let me know. Otherwise, thank you for your attention to this.

Yours truly,

D. Bradley Kizzia

Dear Raphaela,

Thanks you very much for the latest retyping, received last week, to the page you said in the letter for which I also thanks you, and for what came today, your sending a copy of NEVER AGAIN! to the ~~lawyers~~ Dallas ~~at~~ lawyers. I hope you indicated the cost to them. They can pay for it. I think Richard realizes I could not do that on my own.

If you do not know, they are suing the ABA, its JAMA, David Belin, a real Judendat, and the Dallas Morning News.

I think there is much in the book they can use and that if they use it in a lawsuit that should attract attention it should attract attention to the book also.

One of the litigants wants me to go there to testify but that is too much for me now, as the travel alone is.

I do appreciate your using what time you have to complete the retyping.

Thanks you very much, dear Raphaela,

Harold

I enclose a copy of a letter in today's mail. Several like it every day but this is a bit nicer than most.
