5/5/94

Dear Raphaela,

Thanks for your 5/3, the enclosed Mooney release, and the thin batch of retyping here two days or so ago. If there are any other copies of this, which appears to have been printed, I can use them to insert in my mail. Otherwise I'll have to xerox this and lose the color that adds to its attractiveness. And its bottom lines.

Sam Silver has already written the editors or publishers of at least six major magazines, which will mean nothing, and he even sent the Times managing editor a copy of the book with a letter.

I've sent a copy to Michael Jackson's producer, with a short letter.

*Thank and best
Herby*

Dear HW:

Voila! Just got the enclosed from John.

Also, I've asked that more books be sent (at no charge to you.)

Rabbi Silver said he will be writing reviews for a number of publications in Florida and I've asked C&G to send him some more review copies, too.

(I'm sure John will be sending review copies to radio and TV hosts, including Michael Jackson. I'm following up on that promotion.)

Meanwhile...I continue to retype as much as I'm allowed to and will send more pages of your original w/inserts soon.

Sincerely,

Raphaela
