You remain the nost careful researcher I have ever met alte not noderate of revolutionaries all my best, Deck

Dear Dick,

5/25/79

Whe your veloce letter came several days ago I was in the threes of an FOIA affidavit of some longth. My wife was betyping the first part of the draft while I was writing and reading the last part. I'm catching up while she finishes up.

I don't remember when I wrote you but I bragged a hit prematuroly. Five weeks ago I passed blood, was taken off the antiocoagulent for consultations and tests and the last of the tests caused more damage but not in itself of any great consequence. A philebitis in the right arm. I was well aware of the risk and my doctor got a second opinion. It was necessary to eliminate the kidneys as the cause of the bleeding.

New I'm back on the anti-coagulant, which has come to be the blanket for this Linus because I have always felt better with it - and amstill alive if not from it after it.

I'm much indebted to your thoughtfulness and Dr. Segal's wisdom so while I don't recall what I wrote if it is something you think he would like to see I'm glad you sent him a copy. He's a fine person and an excellent physician.

Most of the day I'm still what you call a tough old buzzati. Most days, anyway.

What you do not may but I believe you mean is that you made the career decision you believe will yield most happiness. I hope so - and that it is.

That it lets Jill participate is a fat bonus.

It must be quite challenging to come up with projects the giants can create for themselves.

aincerely.

wen with the lack of respect I have for them.

Because you also have to convince them.

And be able to keep them honest.

That IS a oballence.

Glad the boys are well started. My best to all,
