Dear Mr. Weisberg,

Thanks again for all your help in our phone conversation. Being up here in Maine and not being financially able to skip around the country digging up facts, it is very difficult to try to get all the available information straight - and I want to be accurate.

Hah! Just called the local radio station which does interviews with garden clubbers and librarians and asked to be on with the JFK facts before the League meeting on it. She stays away from "hard core" issues and has to check with the producer on it! There'll be a hassle if he decides in the negative!

Am sorry there is so much conflict among the critics - wish there was a concerted effort - think more could be accomplished that way.

About Lovelady - If he was willing to have his pic taken with his shirt on, he must know that the man he identified as himself in the Altgens pic is not himself. Did he rescind his earlier statements?

Do you think any university would underwrite the costs of a comparison of shirts? How about a photography company - Kodak, Polaroid? Think there must be a way to get this done. In the same vein, photoanalysis of the man himself and comparisons of that and Oswald and Lovelady would be useful - maybe conclusive. This is another approach, but I think it is valid, if it could be done properly.

CONTINUED GOODLUCK in your work and getting the message out. Your hard work is appreciated and will be more so in the future, I'm sure.

Guess what? No dice on the interview. I really have a difficult time believing this. It's "not in the public interest"! I offered to present the evidence to him and assured him I didn't have a chat with "Saul", the assassin, and wasn't a kook. He "could think of few things" he "was less interested in". Have you run into this? How do you handle it? I'm going to send to my Congressmen for any pertinent FCC rules and see if something can be done. Shades of Nazi Germany - this guy can decide that the JFK coverup is not in the public interest to examine, before looking at the facts. Just like the Warren Commission! Wonder if the majority will awake in time to prevent the total destruction of our "freedoms".

Dear Ms. Garnett,

Thanks for the thoughtfulness of the stamped envelope.

Your letter to Senators excellent.

Ray situation/ uncertain, unclear.

Your radio experience is typical. Don't be turned off and don't even lose your sense of outrage.

There is no simple explanation nor one that fits all circumstances but your station is like most and the papers are no better.

You are doing what you can. One can 't do more.

If and when enough others do the situation will change and the country will be better off for it.

Thanks and best wishes,
