Columbes (Ohid) Dispatch January 21, 1997

Investigator out on bond

By Bruce Cadwallad Dispatch Courts Reporter

A private investigator whose testimony was once sought in the conspiracy theories spawned by the assassination of President John F. Kennedy may also be a deadbeat dad.

Gordon Novel, 58, of New Or-leans owes his ex-wife, Abby Novel, a former Playboy model, more than $40,000 in support for their three children, the Franklin County prosecutor's office says.

All three children are now older than 18, but prosecutors are seeking to jail Novel for not making a payment since 1982.

ģ

The Franklin County divorce decree called for him to pay $75 a week. According to county records, he has paid a total of $500, Assistant Prosecutor Jamie Kaylor said. "We believe he has been working the whole time."

After his indictment in October on three counts of felony nonsupport, Novel was arrested in Colum-bus and taken before Common Pleas Judge David W. Fais for a bond hearing Jan. 9. He was represented by Columbus attorney Harry Rein-hart and Ramsey Clark of New York, a former

"Over the years he would hand the kids money, like support, that's a gift." Abby Novel

investigator's ex-wife

$20; but that's not child

U.S. attorney general. Standing

atch

her

.y"

be

ı in reant

11 888

who ; can al for

child-

inter-

y to

before Fais, Novel described himself as a selfemployed investigator who has worked with U.S. presidents and foreign intelliagents for years. Clark said gence agents for years. Clark said Novel has been the primary inves-tigator for him and the 80 plaintiffs in a $900 million lawsuit against the U.S. Justice Department for its raid and 51-day siege at the Branch Davi-dian complex in Waco, Texas, Clark represents the wife and mother of former cult leader David Koresh, among others. Mrs. Novel, 53, who owns a portrait studio and lives in Utica, Ohio, said the lack of support from her ex-husband put her on welfare for several years.

"Over the years he would hand the kids money, like $20; but that's not child support, that's a gift," she sud. "I always felt like a dog chained " ersity to a doghouse with him." Reinhart said the allegations against Novel are false and Novel said 8 ON as receipts to prove his contribuhow tions to his childrer.

w to "He owes absolutely nothing. His children will be a witness for us." the Reinhart said. "It's an attempt by his pealex-wife to get money she doesn't deserve.

> Clark, 70, was the nation's attornev general from 1967 to 1969. He

Page 5 C

... accused of nonsupport

later became a critic of the Vietnam War and intervened in U.S. efforts to release hostages in Iran against the wishes of then-President Carter.

Fais set a $10,000 bond in the nonsupport case but ordered that Novel not leave the continental United States without the judge's consent. Novel said he intends to relocate to Columbus so he can spend more time with his children. He posted $1,000 cash bond and was released from jail.

Fais also ordered that he have no further contact with his ex-wife.

Novel was sentenced to 210 days in jail in Licking County found guilty of two counts of telephone harassment against his ex-wife in 1986. He earlier made news with the announcement he was collaborating with John DeLorean to build sports cars in Columbus.

In addition, Novel was sought for questioning before the 1967 Louisiana grand jury in the Kennedy probe conducted by James Garrison, then-New Orleans district attorney. Novel successfully fought extradition while living in Columbus.

Newsday in New York reported last week that a long-secret FBI document accuses Novel of attempting to doctor a photograph to make it appear that Lee Harvey Oswald had met with Cuban dictator Fidel Castro

"The FBI report suggested that the investigator, Gordon Novel, wanted to 'raise doubt in the public's mind" on whether Oswald alone mur-dered Kennedy," the newspaper reported.

Reinhart labeled the Newsday report "an FBI plant" and said it is filled with misinformation.

No trial date has been set in the 'nonsupport case before Fais.