New Orleans JFK Quiz Grows POT J/677

New Orleans, March 6 (CDN) Additional persons were expected to be summoned for questioning today—and the rest of this week—in the investiga-tion of the assassination of President Kennedy.

The inquiry was expected to quicken even as the question arose here whetheer Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, was taking a personal interest in District Attorney Jim Garrison's investi-

Э.

paper, explained that he was seeking two staff members as-signed to cover the story here. attractive blonde mother of five The offices were locked. He denied that he was looking into the case for Kennedy, his close friend and former boss. He added that he had stopped off in New Orleans on his way to Atlanta to visit another staff member who is ill. The disclosure that more persome of them by subpena-was attractive blonde mother of five children. "I have been urging him to take a rest."

1.

The telephones in the Garrison home, a two-story white brick Georgian style home trimmed with black New Or-leans "lace" (ironwork) and shutters, have been ringing incessantly, she said.

One call over the weekend Attorney Jim Garrison's investi-gation, Edwin O. Guthman-former chief press aide to Kennedy when the Senator served as At-torney General-was seen de-scending the steps of the Crimi-nal Courts Bidg, here where Garrison has his offices. Guthman, new national news editor for a West Coast news-