

Quiz ^{3/7/67} Jail Inmate ^{Picture returned} in Plot Probe

An inmate of Parish Prison, who claims he knew both Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby in Illinois, has been removed from the prison a second time for questioning by members of District Attorney Jim Garrison's staff.

The man was taken from the prison late yesterday afternoon to the basement of the Criminal Courts building at Tulane and Broad, and then brought back up to Garrison's offices through the basement elevator, avoiding newsmen congregated in the hall outside the office.

HE WAS first questioned by the DA's office early last week.

Asked today if a prisoner had been taken for questioning by the DA's staff, Criminal Sheriff Louis A. Heyd Jr. said he had no comment.

The prisoner has made claims that he knew both Oswald, the man the Warren Commission named as President Kennedy's assassin, and Oswald's killer, Ruby, while he was in Illinois.

He also claims he has pictures in his possession of both men. No subpoena has been issued for the prisoner, and his name has not been revealed. There never has been any proof that Ruby and Oswald knew each other before the 1963 assassination.

Clyde Limbaugh, 52, who says he worked as a singer in Jack Ruby's nightclub in Dallas in 1961, 1962 and 1963, went into Garrison's office shortly before noon today and emerged shortly thereafter.

LIMBAUGH told newsmen, in a lengthy statement, he had information that Jack Ruby was part of a conspiracy to assassinate President Kennedy.

The DA's special assistant, William Gurvich, came out while Limbaugh was making his statement and told Lim-
