WARD CHARGES 'DEAL' ATTEMPT

Claims Petre Associate TI Made Contact

Charles R. Ward, candidate or district attorney, charged Tuesday that he was asked to become part of a "political deal" by mayoral candidate John Petre's campaign manager.

Speaking at a press conference, Ward stated that last Friday John Cummings contacted him. Ward said that Cummings, an attorney, was Petre's campaign manager.

"He told me that Mr. Petre was considering endorsing a candidate for DA, but that the endorsement would have to be reciprocal or that I would have to make a substantial contribution to Mr. Petre's cam-paign," Ward stated. "He urged me to get in touch with Mr. Petre. This I refused to do because I do not want any part of a political deal."

Connick said in a news release Tuesday night that he he would expect Harry Connick "noted with a musement" who received Petre's support, Ward's reaction to his endorse- and Petre to deny a deal was ment by Petre for district attor-made. He said "Mr. Petre is made. He said "Mr. Petre is ward's unfounded and nasty implication to cheapen such an un-politician not to have gotten selfish action."

Petre's action was quite explicit. I am an independent candi-date, and I would hope that other candidates for mayor would age but has helped in the camendorse me. The overall solu- paign. Petre, a councilman at tion to the problem of crime in large, said Cummings was our streets requires, as Mr. never consulted in the matter Petre says, a virogous prosecu- of endorsements and had no l tor in the District Attorney's Of-fice. I am personally grateful to Mr. Petre for attributing to me, on the basis of experience as a Petre said he felt when Ward prosecutor and a defender, resigned recently as first assis-those capabilities required by tant district attorney to run the office."

Connick said he had hoped (Connick) has brought out in now running against his former the campaign such as bail bond jumping, narcotics and crime in these matters which became ag- out Petre's knowledge or pergravated during his seven and a mission. He said that Ward is half years in the DA's office, he a friend of his and he hoped c chose to attack the first may-ward would call Petre in an ef-I oral candidate to express an un-fort to get Petre's endorsement. r derstanding of the need for may. Ward said that he will not ac s or-DA action against crime," cept endorsements from any a Connick said.

Ward said that "naturally" would imnair his independence in something in return for his en-He said, "I feel that Mr. dorsement of Harry Connick." Meanwhile, Petre said Cum-against incumbent Jim Garri-Connick said he had hoped Ward would have addressed himself to some of the issues he integral part of the DA's office

However, Cummings said that he actually did call Ward last "Instead of touching on Friday but that he did it withmayoral candidates because it i