

trist presents ways of coping with problems, ranging from minor neuroses and behavior disorders to more serious ailments. All rights available. $7.95. March.

✓ THE STAR-SPANGLED CONTRACT

by Jim Garrison. A suspense novel set in the post-Nixon era features an ex-undercover agent's effort to protect the President from assassination by forces within his own government. By the controversial former District Attorney of New Orleans. All rights available. $7.95. March.

FAMOUS FACES AND OTHER FRIENDS: A Personal Memoir

by William Saroyan. An "autobiographical interlude" tells of the author's encounters with people famous as well as relatively unknown. All rights available. $7.95. April.

THE STRATEGY OF WINNING TENNIS

by Pancho Segura with Gladys Heldman. The tennis star offers advice to players who want to master court strategy, including an analysis of two spectacular matches: Connors vs. Laver and Connors vs. Newcombe. British Commonwealth and translation rights available from Sterling Lord; others from the publisher. $8.95. April.

A NEW AGE NOW BEGINS: A People's History of the American Revolution

by Page Smith. A two-volume narrative history aimed at a general audience and based mainly on primary sources. John Brockman Associates have first serial, British Commonwealth and translation rights. $29.95. April.

EL SINOR

by Charles Webb. A psychological thriller by the author of "The Graduate," the story stars a middle-class suburban housewife whose husband has left her for a young man. Elaine Markson has British Commonwealth and translation rights. $7.95. April.

McKAY

THE ACCOUNTABILITY OF POWER: Toward a Responsible Presidency

by Senator Walter F. Mondale. A delineation of 20 breaches of faith and of the Constitution committed by Nixon, and recommendations for measures to assure that future Presidents act within the law. All rights available. $10. January.

WALK STRAIGHT THROUGH THE SQUARE

by Juliann V. Skurdenis and Lawrence J. Smireich. A guide for exploring by foot some of the cities of Europe—among them Avignon, Rouen, Assisi and Dubrovnik. Maps. All rights available. $8.95. January.

THE JUDGE

by James F. Simon. A look at the life and work of a judge in a major American city over a period of several months, by the author of "In His Own Image." $10. March.

HOW DID THE OCCULT BEGIN?

by R. Brasch. The author explores the origins of the occult and of various superstitions. $10. March.

THE LIVING HEART

by Dr. Michael DeBakey. A heart surgeon writes about the heart, how it works, how to keep it in good shape, the effects of diet and tobacco, etc. All rights available. $10. March.

LOVE MY FOOL

by Dr. Theodore I. Rubin. Inspirational essays from the notebook of the author of "Compassion and Self-Hate." All rights available. $6.95. April.

MELTDOWN

by Ray Kytte. A suspense novel about sabotage in a nuclear testing station. All rights available. $7.95. April.

BIRTH ORDER AND ITS EFFECT ON PERSONALITY

by Dr. Lucille Forer and Henry Still. An exploration of how one's order of birth—second child, only child, etc.—affects adult development. All rights available. $8.95. April.

SAVINGS AND INVESTMENT GUIDE

by William Rickenbacker. A financial advisor and editor guides the reader toward the principles of profitable investment. All rights available. $8.95. April.

SUPERLAND: How to Make Money in Real Estate

by Sanford Goodkin. A managing and marketing consultant outlines the principles of making money in real estate. All rights available. $8.95. April.

SOMEBODY ELSE IS ON OUR MOON

by George Leonard. Through examination of NASA photographs and reports from landings on the moon, the author concludes there are living creatures there. $9.95. April.

PRAGMATIC ILLUSIONS: The Politics of the Presidency of John F. Kennedy by Bruce Miroff. A view from the left on the presidency of JFK. All rights available. $8.95. April.

MACMILLAN

INSIDE THE WALLS OF SPANDAU: The Prison Diaries of Albert Speer

by Albert Speer, translated by Richard and Clara Winston. The secret diaries of Speer's 20-year incarceration following his sentencing at Nuremberg. 80 pages of photographs. $12.95. February.

100 YEARS OF BASEBALL: The Centennial of the National League by Henry Berry, Bob Cook, Joe Falls, et al. The history of baseball from the official forming of the National League in 1876 to the present. Illustrated. $19.95. April.

ROCKEFELLER, INC.: The Hidden Empire

by Sheldon Engelmeyer and Robert Wagman. An investigative biography which claims to include previously unpublished facts about the Rockefeller empire. $10.95. March.

SINATRA

by Earl Wilson. Columnist Wilson tells Sinatra's story from his youth to his temporary eclipse and eventual comeback. Illustrated. $8.95. May.

DIANA RISING: A Revolutionary Study of Female Sexuality

by Shere Hite. The results of the National Organization for Women sexuality questionnaire sent to 200,000 women across the country. $12.95. May.

THE COMING BREAKPOINT

by Barry Goldwater. The conservative Senator reflects on the growth and extravagance of the federal bureaucracy, and offers recommendations for change. $8.95. April.

MASON/CHARTER

THE LEGACY

by Ronald L. Bern. A novel which spans four generations in telling of David Harris's struggle to understand the meaning of his Jewish heritage. $8.95. January.

THE PUNISHMENT CURE

by Stephen J. Sansweet. An examination of aversion therapy, one of the most controversial areas of behavioral science today. $8.95. January.

THE SHOW GYPSIES

by Leigh Brown. This novel is a love story set against a background of the horse show circuit. $8.95. January.

LIN YUTANG: The Best of an Old Friend

Edited by A. J. Anderson. Excerpts from the works of Dr. Lin, author of "The Importance of Living." $7.95. January.

OIL POWER

by Carl Solberg. The author examines current social, political, economic, and military trends to support his thesis that the oil empire is on the verge of collapse. $12.50. February.

911

by Thomas Chastain. A mystery novel in which Inspector Kaufman tracks down a bomber who sets off one explosion for each of the 12 days of Christmas. $7.95. March.

HAMILTON I

by Robert Hendrickson. T-