

Oswald Linked To Downing of Powers' U-2

Continued From First Page

that he had already offered to tell a Soviet official what he had learned as a radar operator in the Marines."

Page 665: "Oswald stated to Snyder that he had voluntarily told Soviet officials that he would make known to them all information concerning the Marine Corps and his specialty therein, radar operation, as he possessed."

Page 369: "He stated that he had volunteered to give Soviet officials any information that he had concerning Marine Corps operations, and intimated that he might know something of special interest."

Tantalizing Lead

During the six months following the Oct. 31, 1959, Embassy meeting there were only two overflights of the USSR. The one which occurred on April 9, 1960, was uneventful. The one which followed, on May 1, 1960, wasn't.

Here the trail ends, except for one tantalizing lead, discovered during the research for this book.

Among the Warren Commission Documents in the National Archives in Washington, D.C. is one numbered 931, dated May 13, 1964, CIA National Security Classification Secret.

In response to an inquiry, Mark G. Eckhoff, director, Legislative, Judicial and Diplomatic Records Division, National Archives, in a letter dated Oct. 13, 1969, stated "Commission Document 931 is still classified and withheld from research."

The title of Document No. 931 is "Oswald's Access to Information about the U-2."

NEXT: Powers' connection with the C.I.A., and apprehension about the upcoming flight.

From the book "Operation Overflight" by Francis Gary Powers and Curt Gentry. Published by Holt, Rinehart and Winston, Inc. © 1970 by Francis Gary Powers and