

To Louis I von
Andrew Sciambra
O'Sullivan, Gersci, Suppression

I have been preparing two Clerk memos, one on his Shaw statements and another on suppressions for which he is responsible. I have finished the first and am largely through the second.

In putting this information together I am more than ever convinced that the O'Sullivan matter cannot be allowed to rest where it now is.

If he is not the man who spirited Philip Gerace out of Orleans Parish within 24 hours of Ferris's death, or if the Gerscis are wrong, that, too, must be established, in fairness to him.

As you know, I plan to look into this further. I think it would be helpful if you can have a picture of O'Sullivan for me.

It is quite possible that, someone knowing the story & and a reading of the testimony would have been enough - could have counterfeited O'Sullivan.

If we can have False Oswalds, why not False O'Sullivan?

If the reason for this bizarre affair was spurious - and if it is the one given me it certainly is - why not the second person involved? They knew Burns. They did not know O'Sullivan.

Remember who this boy connects with - and who is to be on trial.
