

Not an appeal - informant identified

As noted in the first page of 68-103040-4400, I provide it because it discloses the name of a FBI. Because it was bracketed for withholding I do not know whether the disclosure of the name is accidental.

I am not up to date on the penitentiary right of the west coast. I believe that Swift, an informant, died, but I'm not sure.

However, as the FBI FOIA can't say not know, his people had the reputation of being well served and disposed toward violence.
