

Dear Harold,

Oct. 24, 1993

Thanks for your letter of the 19th and the enclosed San Francisco Chronicle review of Posner's book. It is a good thing you wrote KEEP! on the top because I have gotten sick of reading the glowing reviews and praise in the reviews that I have read. The comments on Failure Analysis will be helpful as I put together the lecture I will give at St. Anslem's College (where Dennis teaches) on Nov. 11th.

My radio appearance went very well. I know the person who does this show quite well. We are both from Milwaukee; in fact he was quite pleased to find out that I heard him on radio when he first broke into the business in Milwaukee back in the mid 1960s. He tends to ask open-ended questions which allow his guests to focus on whatever aspect of the general topic they wish to focus on. So, I devoted most of my time to Posner's fraudulent book. I referred to him as both a fraud, and a cunning fraud. Prior to this I read more carefully the U.S. NEWS exclusive and found other distortions and errors. As one illustration, I noted how he had taken a portion of one person's testimony and spliced it together with another person's testimony to make it appear that there was evidence that Oswald took the rifle to the TSBD that morning. I am referring of course to Frazier's and Randle's testimony about the bag he carried to work that morning. As you probably know, what he did is took Frazier's statement that one end of the bag was tucked into his armpit and Mrs. Randle's statement that one end almost touched the ground and just put them together, which, of course, contradicts what they actually said. Since Posner claims to have re-indexed the 26 vol., I pointed out that this could not have been an innocent mistake.

I am enclosing the article that was done on me for the school paper. I believe it will also appear in the Alumni paper. Also, an economics professor here who subscribes to the Wall Street Journal sent me the article on Hosty, which you may not have seen.

Hanh-Trang and the kids are fine. My mother will be coming down to visit and take care of the kids for a few days when Hanh-Trang and I go to Boston. We have had a mild, dry, beautiful fall so far which I hope will stick around for at least another couple weeks so that my mother can enjoy it.

Hope you are well, and say hello to Lillian.

Best,

Gene
