Dear Harold,

It was so good to hear from you the other day. I am sure you must feel good to have made it home, even if you now have some new medical worries. Hanh-Trang may be of some help regarding diet.

Our plans are essentially the same as I outlined in my previous letter. We should arrive in Fairfax late on Sat. the 20th. I am sure we will stay there and visit on Sunday (but that can be changed if necessary). Most likely, we will stay there and commute to Frederick probably on Monday and Tuesday (the 22nd & 23rd). We will call you on Sunday morning to see exactly when would be best for us to visit. I am fairly certain Dennis is also planning to come down at this time too.

I am half-way through Hosty's Pudding and I think it is excellent. I am reading it carefully and making some minor grammatical corrections as I go. Hosty's book seems to have given you an excellent opportunity to review some important material -- perhaps even better than Posner in some respects.

I believe I should be able to provide much of what Dennis Maugere is looking for. I hope he will get in touch with either Dennis or myself.

Take care. We are looking forward to our visit.

Best,
