

Dear Earl,

8/28/80

It's been a long time since you ordered a new print of the Doyle film of the FBI and I've not gotten it.

That is what they refer to as a non-project request, where the backlog is only about 2-3 months. Therefore, they should have provided it long ago.

I'd appreciate copies of the correspondence so I can raise the matter and get the replacement print.

It would also be helpful in establishing to the Department how the FBI does not follow its supposed practise of processing requests chronologically in the smaller or non-project requests.

I hear the T-H had an Ainsworth piece, with a co-~~ax~~ author, in which, without naming me, he referred to me as a turkey farmer. Oddly, turkeys are the one thing I didn't raise and I was (official<sup>ly</sup>) the national champ in what I did raise Guess Hugh is still a turkey wrestling with the long neck of his own past.

When you speak to Mary please tell her that recently I've referred several people to her, only yesterday a British professor

And that I hope they are all well.

You, too.
