Dear Congressman Gonzalez,

At the request of Jim Brown, of Jackson, Miss., I am happy to send you this copy of the fourth of the WHITEWASH series on the JFK assassination.

Also enclosed is a list of my other books on political assassinations. If you would like any, please let me know and I'll send them to you.

I am, in general, aware of your interest in the subject. If I can help you in any way I would, of course, want to.

I believe I have done more responsible work and more work of any kind than anyone else in the field. So, if you would like a member of your staff to come here he or she would be welcome and if you would like me to go to your office, that also I would be more than willing to do. We are but an hour apart.

There is a point in my emphasis on "responsible." In recent years many concerned people have had much to say with little or no basis. In most cases their concerns are real but their information is of dubious or no authenticity.

It requires an enormous amount of time to be able to distinguish fact from fiction in this field in which so much remains unknown, so much still hidden. Few people are able or willing to invest that time.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Brown:

Thank you very much for your wonderful letter in respect to my interest in re-opening the investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy. I am pleased you had a chance to speak to your own Congressman and was glad to hear that he was receptive and responsive to your arguments.

I am hopeful to get together a bill or resolution for the 94th Congress and will certainly send you a copy whenever it is available. At this point, I am not sure when we will be able to get any funds together for a staff. I appreciate your offer to come to Washington to work fulltime on this matter, and perhaps there will be an opportunity for you to do so if such a committee is finally formed.

You are very kind to give me a contribution for my re-election. Actually, I do not have an opponent this time around, but I have always utilized contributions such as yours for the continuing expenses which I have in publishing my newsletter and the weekly television and radio reports for my district.

I appreciate your suggestions and your continued interest in this matter, and I am hopeful of having a future report for you sometime in the not-too-distant future.

Sincerely yours,

Henry B. Gonzalez
