Beret Case Victim

By Robert G. Kaiser Washington Post Foreign Service

SAIGON, Aug. 11-The victim in the Green Beret murder case was "a dangerous Communist double agent" employed by both the CIA and the North vietnamese, a lawyer representing one of the eight accused Green Berets said tonight.

The lawyer, George Gregory of Cheraw, S.C., met his client—May, Thomas Middleton of Jefferson, S.C.-and studied documents in the case for most of today. Tonight he told the Saigon press corps:

"If it is proven that some one reached his demise (in this case) I believe you will find that . . (he) will be a dangerous Communist double agent hired by the best financed agency of the United States of America, the CIA-Let's put the finger right on where it should be to gather facts, and you will find that this agent . . . was wrongfully trusted with such valuable information that hundreds and thousands of lives of Ameriagents and American fighting men , . . were saved a most necessary manner . .

Gregory offered no proof for this contention, but said that anyone who could study the documents he saw today would reach the same conclusion. The chief of the CIA mission in Saigon was not at home tonight, and a U.S. Embassy spokesman said there would be no comment on any alleged CIA activity in Viet-Middleton. Maj. Besides seven other Green Beret officers are charged with murder and conspiracy to murder "a Vietnamese' national" Nhatrang on June 20.

See BERETS, A13, Col. 1

BERETS, From A1

commander of all Green Beret troops in Vietnam. Another major, three captains, a warrant officer and a sergeant are also accused of the crime.

Gregory said he could not discuss the case in detail because the whole inquiry is shrouded under a "secret" classification.

"We certainly have no objection to anything being released regarding this case," he said. "We do object to these cover stories being released by the army . . . to indicate that something other than what really happened, happened."

ing that the army might try to who are so concerned that manding Middleton's imme-hold a secret court-martial. He they will come out of this diate release. In it he said the would fight this, he declared.

Gregory did not deny that a man might have lost his life. Indeed, his story about a dangerous double agent who knew too much and thousands of men whose lives "were saved about such charges. in a most necessary manner" suggested that the alleged newsmen at the Caravelle hoagent was eliminated.

attorney—sweat glistening in hot by televisison lights and staff, Gregory revealed. He the Klieg lights around his the press of too many bodies, said this had boosted his clinotyet-fully-grown sideburns. He sat in a modern green ent's morale.

not as a criminal."

Gregory called for a con- The lawyer charged that his gressional investigation of the client was being held unjusticase "to insure that in the fu- fiably under "subhuman conture people with my client's ditions." Declaring that the caliber will not be sacrificed army had no cause to imprison client to "improve their interests."

The lawyer blamed the charges against Middleton on fear our highest commanders had." He said that "because of my client."

But he would not be specific

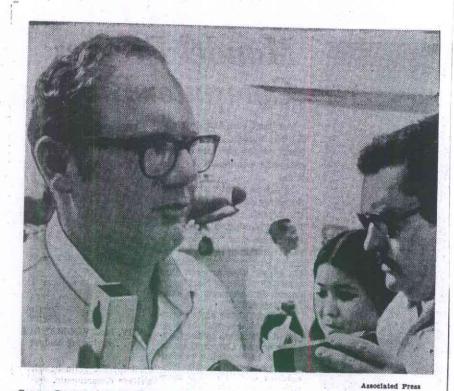

-scrupulously adhered to his chair, dressed in a snappy Among the accused is Col. pledge not to divulge any spe-blue sports jacket. The cam-Robert B. Rheault, former cific details. He said his client eras recorded his every ges-"should be received as a hero, ture and word for more than an hour.

> Middleton before he was for-He accused "the highest mil-itary authority in Vietnam" of Gregory said the major "was pressing "these most unwar-ranted charges" against his not treated as a gentle-not treated as an officer, he man who merely had accusations placed against him.

> He was confined in maxinum security without even "political sensitivity and the the necessities of life-withbut even toilet facilities."

Gregory, who is 31 and has the timidity of certain . . . ex- spent three years as an attor-"I realize it's going to be a tremely high commanders, ney in the Judge Advocate hard thing for the people to who are so afraid of possible General's Corps himself, filed get to the facts," he said, add-international repercussions and a formal motion today dething in a manner which will major was neither a danger not be favorable politically to those around him nor likely to flee the jurisdiction of a to flee the jurisdiction of a to sacrifice the life, career of court-martial, hence there was no reason to hold him.

Middleton was permitted to alk to his wife in South Caro-Gregory spoke to a crowd of lina by telephone for half an ggested that the alleged newsmen at the Caravelle ho-hour Sunday night, thanks to tel—the tallest building in an order from Gen William C. But the round, jovial young Saigon—in a large room made Westmoreland, army chief-of-

George Gregory, left, the Cheraw, S.C. lawyer hired to defend Maj. Thomas Middleton, one of eight Green Berets facing murder charges, is interviewed at Saigon.