Army Refuses to Release Beret Suspect

SAIGON, Aug. 15 (AP)—The U.S. Army refused today to release one of the eight members of the U.S. Special Forces (Green Berets) charged with murdering a Vietnamese. The murdering a Vietnamese. The more refused was based on "the serie into the case."

"political issues rather than Gregory said the victim on the official charge sheet was action. "The agency," he said, "has no command authority of but that this was "only a cover of Appeals in Washington to free his client pending the completion of an investigation into the South China Sea. refusal was based on "the seri- into the case.

refusal was based on "the seriousness of the alleged offense," an official spokesman said.

Middleton and seven others, and the civilian attorney for Maj. Thomas C. Middleton Jr. claimed that Army officials in Vietnam and the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency were making his client "a human sacrifice" in a case based on a court-martial.

Into the South China Sea.

Gregory also asserted that Into the CIA has orgonated to prove that the CIA has orgonated the killing and effectuated the killing and effectuated the killing of over 100 as that dealt out to one of his constituents, Capt. Leland Brumley of Duncan, Okla, and the seven others. Albert said he did not believe the circumstances warranted "such harsh treatment" as that dealt out to one of his constituents, Capt. Leland Brumley of Duncan, Okla, and the seven others. Albert said he did not believe the circumstances warranted "such harsh treatment" as that dealt out to one of his constituents, Capt. Leland Brumley of Duncan, Okla, and the seven others. Albert said he did not believe the circumstances warranted "such harsh treatment" as that dealt out to one of his constituents, Capt. Leland Brumley of Duncan, Okla, and the seven others. Albert said he did not believe the circumstances warranted "such harsh treatment" as that dealt out to one of his constituents, Capt. Leland Brumley of Duncan, Okla, and the seven others. Albert said he did not believe the circumstances warranted "such harsh treatment" as that dealt out to one of his constituents, Capt. Leland Brumley of Duncan, Okla, and the seven others. Albert said he did not believe the circumstances warranted "such harsh treatment" as that dealt out to one of his constituents, Capt. Leland Brumley of Duncan, Okla, and the seven others. Albert said he did not believe the circumstances warranted "such harsh treatment" as that dealt out to one of his constituents, Capt. Leland Brumley of Duncan, Okla, and the seven others. Albert said he did not believe the circumstances warranted "such harsh treatment" as the

into the South China Sea.

reported. In a telegram to De-