Dear Robert,

I don't like to have to write you sharply. In fact, I'd rather not have to write you at all. Wasting time trying to undo the harm of which you were part in all that Gregorian insanity is more than enough. (Cleansing that, as a matter of record if not attention is possible and is in the works, nothanks to any of you who caused it none of whom knew or care about going about it.)

So I have to write again about what I should never have had to write at all.

First there is the Hunter money. It is over a month and should have been paid and as I told you I've already spent it and have to deliver it to the roofer. If there is going to be anything to keep you from delivering it promptly, please try to overcome your hangup about the written word and let me know - and why.

Then there is the matter of the pictures. I told you I'd pay the costs. In a month and a half or more no word?

There is now more need. I have an Itek-like service available from one without spook connections, a friend of a ~~friend~~ friend. And I'm to be there when the work is done. So, I'd like an extra print of all those you have in the Lovelady-Oswald sequence. It would be better if Richter would part with a set of prints because I want these comparisons to be as faithful as possible.

If there is any other photo-intelligence work of this kind you want done, let me know and have the prints.

I expect to be present when the work is done.

Is there anything of this nature you'd like done with the Zapruder, Nix or Muchmore prints I have? If there is, tell me. Or if you have good stills of those frames on which you'd like work done, send them and tell me the cost.

But for God's sake, whatever you do, please start acting responsibly, as an adult.

You don't have to spend money you don't have on phones. You can write short letters. And you should not force me to take time keeping after you.

Jim and I are too busy in court. However, it has great promise in the new cases. We are in the court of appeals day after tomorrow on spectro. On my suit for the missing executive session transcripts that judge last week told the government if they do not respond fully and responsibly to our interrogatories he'll have his witness room filled with government officials who will testify. Preparing and preparing for these things takes much work. In one case I had to write a book for jim in advance of a hearing to prepare him. This, of course, reduces what else I can do. And makes any waste of time even more unwelcome, unhappy as it makes me with the limitations I now have. (I see the doctor this morning in D.C. I'm going to try to drive it although the one time since I left the hospital it was too much for me. This time Lil also has to go. I'd have to get her up too early to take the bus.)

Hope you are all well, that things are getting a little better for you. Our hugs to Chris and the kids.

Best,
