Dear Miss Harris,

Especially because of your question am I sorry that you could not get through by phone when I was on the Contact program earlier this week. It is a very good question for which I do not have what you might find a very good answer.

First, inform yourself. This means reading not just my book, but those with which I disagree.

Then, think about it. Am I right? Are the others?

If you conclude affirmatively, then all I can think of for you to do is to try and make yourself heard. That is not only the way our country is supposed to work. It is also the responsibility of citizenship. This means talking to people and perhaps writing your Congressmen and Senators.

It is a frightening thing. But we must not fear thinking and trying to do whatever it seems reasonable to try and do.

I am familiar with "Rush to Judgment". It covers some of the ground I do.

Wish I had time for a longer letter. Thank you for taking the time to write and share your thoughts. That helps me.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

ML

Dear Sir,

To begin with, I am with you all the way concerning your book.

I saw you on "Contact" and tried desperately to get a chance to talk to you, but, alas it was impossible to get through the busy lines.

My question was and is, "what can I do about this?"

I am young (19) and the whole mystery of the Kennedy assassination has me very confused. It scares me. What is to become of us in ten or twenty years if we are at such a point now as to "hide" the truth?

Can anything be done?

You have probably heard of another book, "Rush to Judgment". This book states many facts which conflict with the Warren report.

Of course, you must receive much mail and you must be very busy. If you do get a chance, however, I would be very glad to hear from you concerning this.
