

A ma - Avis group photo

Berlin 'Gertie' Turns Out to Be a Pittsburgher.

News 8-24-43
By United Press

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 24—The Pittsburgh Press said today that "Gertie From Berlin," a feminine Nazi propagandist who has been beaming a radio program to North Africa in an effort to break down morale of American soldiers, is Gertrude Hahn, former Pittsburgher.

She lived on Pittsburgh's South Side before moving in 1938 to Germany with her German-born parents. Hahn, a naturalized American citizen, was sent there to supervise a construction job for the company for which he worked. He severed connections with his company after reaching Germany and became an ardent Nazi, The Press said.

Gertie is said to have been employed by the Berlin radio under the name of Gertrude Williams.