Dear Harold,

I see the ARRB has closed shop and all they proved is that a different hand ~~take~~^{took} hold of the handle of the whitewash brush!!! I wonder how many questions they never addressed??? I was at their open hearing at the Earle Cabell Federal Building on November 18, 1994 - Gary Agdilar was there with his classroom skull and the babuska lady made a plea. They said they never got my letter and even though I made more formal requests, they never came up with an answer. It was easy to provide the item since even the WC printed parkland form 01811 - so a precedent had been set to provide 01810!!! They did respond immediately to a request for Frazier's lie detector test - it was missing, even Robt Blakey could not have it!!! So - the government was needlessly overcautious and overzealous!!! That caused all the confusion; what ever happened to old-fashioned collection of info, material and evidence before reaching a conclusion??? The WC worked long and hard at avoiding certain evidence!!!

In your works you seem to lean towards the anti-Castro group as the culprit!! There is much evidence for that view. It implies revenge as to motive. As I lived through and experienced the events of those times, I felt JFK was earmarked for ouster as soon as he was elected. he seemed to be a constitutionalist and felt it was the "law of the land" written by extraordinary and ordinary men who believed the time had come to strike a master blow for all men - not just for the last half of the 18th century!! JFK probably realized the Constitution had been stolen from the people and was being used to the benefit of the few powerful and rich. When the question came up, "Why was he riding around in an open car??" my late brother always responded. "That was his style!!" Indeed it was his style, to make crowds, spectators, "the people" feel that the presidency was close and belonged to them!!! As JFK's popularity and strength grew, the "thieves" became more and more desperate!! It is a well-known saying that "desperate men do desperate things!" an apt corollary for Occam's Razor!! In his last speeches, JFK DID talk less of Americans and more of mankind and "future generations."

I believe he was done in by those who could not accept the Constitution being returned to the people and, hence, its popularity and acceptance by others around the world!!! By those seeking "freedom"

Anyway, the ARRB seems to be just another effort to establish the "credibility" of the WC.

Best regards and all,

Paul Haller
