Dear Harold,

What a treat it must have been for you to ~~see~~ the Red Sox come back from a 0-2 deficit to blast the Indians. And Martiniz' performance - 6 innings of no hit pitching. I recall Carl Erskine pitching 9 or 10 innings of no-hit relief ball in a World series game vs, the yankees in the 1950s!!! No-hitters only count from the git-go!!! I thought of you as the Red Sox' boys came alive!!! Sorry, but, it looks like the Yankees are going to do it again!! And probably to the Braves!!!!

Anyway, the Sox made it look like a race from the "old days."

My trek begins in about a week and if I can believe others, my documents are in the Sixth Floor Museum even if Gary Mack could not help me by mail. We'll see!!! We have to keep trying especially after re-reading POST MORTEM!!! Something IS cockedy-eyed!! To pull LHO into this as was done, he had to have been carefully pre-patsied!! It all certainly was not a knee-jerk event!!!!

I hope and pray all is going as well as possible for you and Lil!!

The very best of wishes and all,
Paul H.
