Dear Bob,

I hope you do not have occasion to learn it, but if you ever go five years without income, accumulating about $40,000 in debts, you will learn there are many things you'd like to do you must forgo. I am not renewing magazine subscriptions as they run out and have not started one in three years.

The service is great. However, had it been a single day earlier, it would have been greater. It is a rather good fit, and I'm holding up the limited publication of a book to add it. Is the title of the source "Ripon's Republican"? If it is not, please, do, give me the right one. I assume ~~xxx~~ this is a convention biography, 1968.

You see, he was decorated by Bringuier and Arcacha, and he is with Gaudet...associated, I believe, with the Batista boys.

I've published two limited editions since returning, have yet to file the papers on the second, and am readying the third, without knowing when I can arrange for any one to go into general distribution.

If you hear any kind of explanations of the debacle, I'd appreciate every one, with or without source. Not too surprised, I am also not at all happy.

Again, thanks, and best to you both.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
