Dear Lou,

If for any reason you are still using the Chef Centeur mailbox, I suggest that when Steve Burton gave it to Harve Lemaire to get a printed copy of the book, in French to you, he ended any security it may have had.

Is it not strange that the manuscript could safely go through the mail, uninsured, unprotected in any way, but he was worried about getting a French edition of the already published book through safely?

For my own purposes, can you send me Nancy Terrin Rich Hamilton's address?

Did anyone ever ask the bondaman who, if anyone, arranged for Oswald's bond?

Remember the Terrin pictures, please.

Hope you are finished with the flu.

Best regards,

Harold Weisberg
