

CD194, pp.1,3-7. Oswald's literature distribution. Mrs. Freida Herard, WDSU, "The Greek's" Restaurant, Elwood Huettman, and others working in 100 block Camp St.

Again, it is what is lacking that intrigues. In Oswald's notebook there is an address in the 100 block of Camp St. known to the FBI. That address is 117. It is Gemelli's tailor shop, where inquiry would have revealed Oswald was unknown. Thus, Oswald's use of simple errors in his notebook would have come to light. Changing one number gives the Camp St. address of Ronnie Caire's advertising agency, where Oswald had applied for a job. Caire had been active in anti-Castro activities, had been a close associate of Arcache.

Why was Mrs. Herard interviewed? Why did the FBI not show her the pictures it had of the literature distribution she saw, not the one she hadn't seen? This question is pertinent to the others who saw the Canal St. distribution.

Huettman obviously had a handbill. Did he give it to the FBI? Did they ask for it? How did they come to question him? Of course, he could have called them, but they do not say.

Also seemingly missing and most conspicuously so are any employees of the parking garage across the side street from the Trade Mart. This is particularly interesting to me because an anti-Castro Cuban told me of seeing this distribution and of Oswald having access to a car parked at this garage, an old car. Whether or not the FBI knew or could have learned this, employees of the open garage building are among the most obvious to have been questioned, to have seen pictures.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 12/11/63

Mrs. PAULINA HERARD, 4421 Duquesne Street, furnished the following information:

For the past several years she has stopped at least once a week at Kaminoff's Beauty Shop, 228 Canal Street, and added that after leaving her hair styled, she regularly stopped at a Greek restaurant located in the 100 block of Camp Street.

She stated that sometime during August, 1963, she happened to observe an individual who appeared to be passing out handbills. She explained that he passed her a handbill which she said she still believed was in her home, although she has not been able to locate the handbill since. She stated that she would advise the FBI if she could identify the person. She stated that she would advise the FBI if she could identify the person. She stated that she would advise the FBI if she could identify the person.

She stated that she only observed this activity for a few moments and did not pay any attention to the person passing out these handbills. She stated that she was not aware that she was passing out handbills in front of the International Trade Mart, located at 124 Canal Street.

Mrs. HERARD was furnished photographs of persons passing out handbills on August 14, 1963, at the International Trade Mart, 124 Canal Street, New Orleans, Louisiana. These photographs had been furnished for the use of the FBI by television station WDSU. HERARD picked out a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as being identical with the person she said she had observed passing out handbills on Canal Street. HERARD stated that this was the same person who was identified through television and newspaper coverage of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. At that time OSWALD'S picture was widely represented. She added that she could not identify any other persons shown in the pictures furnished the FBI by station WDSU, although she stated that one person pictured in these photographs was possibly holding several handbills with a notation of "Mr. Herard" in her opinion bore a considerable

On 12/11/63 at NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA File # MO 100-16901

by SA JAMES ROYCE DYCK Date dictated 12/11/63

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

CD/194

MO 100-16901/MP

Companying to an individual that she had seen on numerous occasions, who may have been employed in a restaurant known as "The Greek" located in the 100 block of Camp Street. She stated that approximately six months ago, this restaurant was closed and she believed the owner named, MANUEL, had been replaced by the Waterbury Drug Store.

She stated that she possibly someone in the 100 block of Canal Street, would be able to further identify persons appearing in these photographs and that the following persons might be identified:

She stated that a newspaper named JOHNNY had operated a newspaper on the corner of Camp and Canal Streets in front of the Waterbury Drug Store for more than 20 years and there was a small newspaper located directly across from this location on Camp Street. She also stated that persons might be located in the stores and other locations in the area between the International Trade Mart and Waterbury's Drug Store on Canal Street.

CD 124, pr. 1, 5-7, Oswald's literature distribution, Mrs. Freida Herard, WDSU, "The Greek's" Restaurant, Elwood Huettman, and others working in 100 block Camp St.

*IN OSWALD'S
NOTEBOOK*

again, it is what is lacking that intrigues. There is an address in the 100 block of Camp St known to the FBI. That address is 117. It is Gemelli's tailor shop, where inquiry would have revealed Oswald was unknown. Thus Oswald's use of simple errors in his notebook would have come to light. Changing one number gives the Camp St. address of Ronnie Cairo, advertising agency, where Oswald had applied for a job. Cairo had been active in anti-Castro activities, had been a close associate of Arcaha.

Why was Mrs. Herard interviewed? Why did the FBI not show her the pictures it had of the literature distribution she saw, not the one she hadn't seen? This question is pertinent to the others who saw the Canal St. distribution.

Huettman obviously had a handbill. Did he give it to the FBI? Did they ask for it? How did they come to question him. Of course, he could have called them, but they do not say.

Also seemingly missing and most conspicuously so are any employees of the parking garage across the side street from the Trade Mart. This is particularly interesting to me because an anti-Castro Cuban told me of seeing this distribution and of Oswald having access to a car parked at this garage, an old car. Whether or not the FBI knew or could have learned this, employees of the open garage building are among the most obvious to have questioned, to have seen pictures.