Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to the conversation had with you on June 1, 1964, by Mr. James R. Malley concerning the retention of the cameras of Orville Nix and Marie Muchmore, as well as the Bell and Howell camera owned by Abraham Zapruder and subsequently turned over to the Bell and Howell Company in Chicago, Illinois.

In accordance with this conversation, inasmuch as the President's Commission has no further need for these cameras, arrangements are being made for these cameras to be returned to their owners as soon as possible.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover
