Holmes' claim to have administered polygraph tests in the JFK and King assassination investigations is at the very least greatly exaggerated.

Save for Jack Ruby, I have no recollection of any official polygraph testing in the JFK case and I recall no official polygraphing in the King case.

Thus what he seems to be saying is that privately someone hired him to make such tests and that would seem to have been only in pursuance of some nutty theories.

But the reader can assume only that he had official functions in both cases.
