*The Second Century Gala
A Celebration of the 100th Anniversary of the Day Hood College Opened its Doors to Students*

The Woman's College of Frederick, Maryland, now known as Hood College, was founded in May of 1893 by five churchmen. Throughout the summer of 1893 Joseph Henry Apple, the newly elected president, travelled throughout Maryland and surrounding areas hiring faculty and recruiting students. The Woman's College opened its doors on September 11, 1893, with an enrollment of 83, including 33 resident students and 50 commuters, and with eight faculty members.

During the Second Century Gala Weekend we will celebrate the completion of 100 years of educational service to women and to the citizens of Central Maryland. Plans include seminars, a picnic, a band concert, a fireworks display, hot air balloon rides, a carnival, and dancing. Plan now to join us for the festive celebration.
