Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I apologize for the delay in getting back to you. I tried to call last week, but there was no answer.

I don't know anything about getting work to Rebecca Price. Your letter is the first I have heard of her. I still have some work to do in order to finish everything I have, but I can give it to Rebecca when I am finished if I know how to get in touch with her. You can tell her to call me at work (202/737-266) or leave a message at 695-7336. I will arrange to give everything to her as soon as possible. I need to talk to her first, though, and find out what kind of computer she is working on.

I hope you and Mrs. Weisberg are doing well. If I don't hear from Rebecca in the next couple of weeks, I'll let you know.

Sincerely,

Carol

Dear Carol,

Rebecca Price was in May. This is September. Will you please duplicate the diskette and send it to Dr. Dennis MacDonald, 188 Milford St., Manchester, NH 03102.

They have been waiting for it for a month or so. They are going to take that manuscript over. I also would like to know the last thing or the last chapter or the last page you have so I can get the rest of it to them. If they know the program you used, or whatever it is called, I am sure Dennis can do what is necessary and they can continue, he and his wife.

The corrections can wait if you are too busy to finish them.

Meanwhile, after Dennis has the diskette he can tell me if they would like to take the corrections over if you have not done them by then.

I am very <sup>sorry</sup> ~~sorry~~ about this very long delay.

I hope you will duplicate the diskette and get the diskette to them as soon as possible.

That ms. is much longer than you saw and Dennis is a full-time college professor. He and his wife, who will help him, and I are all anxious for me to be able to go over the entire thing when it is completed.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
